Manorma Arora
Academic Director

Welcome to the passionate, compassionate learning culture and to a warm academic community. Our ongoing endeavor to excel and succeed has penned a saga of success in academic laurels. My earnest efforts are to perforce down my passion for academic achievement to my students, so that they acquire skills required for a successful life. Education being a lifelong process, shaping young and impressionable minds is my life's biggest challenge. We aim to empower our students to grow as individuals with strong open discerning minds and preparing them to make a mark in today's competitive world. We strive to provide an environment within a frame work of discipline that is flexible as well as supportive.

Adventurous Spirits

I extend a heartfelt thanks to all Stakeholders for joining us in our journey to explore new vistas which can enrich our children to live a happy life afterwards. Every human being is born with a purpose of life. Once a child understands this he/she will discover the core values attached to this very purpose. This realization sets the tone for higher academic, personal and professional achievements. I wish my each and every student to find out his/her purpose and begin life journey on the road illuminated with positive energy.
